

HIGH SCHOOL PREPARATION COURSE OUTLINE

NZQA ACCREDITED AND TEC (GOVERNMENT) FUNDED

Designed for students wanting to improve their English skills in all areas in preparation for High School studies in New Zealand.

STUDENTS WILL:

- Learn how to use the correct pronunciation of vocabulary.
- Have discussions about news and current affairs.
- Learn about New Zealand culture and customs.
- Use well-known textbooks along with additional supporting materials and learning resources.
- Learn how to learn (Strategies for learning English).
- Have computer room sessions, which form part of the course.

The full-time course also includes Practical English Skills classes that complement the High School English classes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: (LEVEL APPROPRIATE)

Reading: to be able to read texts varying in length and complexity, which relate to school subject areas and the demands of everyday school life.

Writing: to be able to write reports and argumentative essays.

Listening: to be able to understand familiar topics and be able to understand a variety of school-based listening contexts (e.g. announcements, teacher instructions, classroom lessons, social interactions between students).

Speaking: to be able to talk about familiar topics and give explanations and reasons for opinions. To take part in classroom discussions.

Grammar: to be able understand and apply the body of rules surrounding English grammar in everyday contexts, including the use of nouns, adjectives, verbs, prepositions, tenses, sentence structure and phrases.

Vocabulary Topics: develop vocabulary connected with school subjects and other topics relevant to everyday school life.

PLACEMENT AND ASSESSMENT:

Students sit a comprehensive written and oral placement test on their first day, to place them in the class most suitable for them. Assessment is continuous throughout the course; students are formally tested every 6 weeks and receive regular feedback from their teachers.

EXPECTED COURSE OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course students should be able to communicate with a greater understanding of the English language structure, including: grammar points, English sounds and intonation patterns, reading skills, writing fluency and conversation skills.
