High School Preparation Programme

From ages 14 +

Overseas students intending to study at a High School in New Zealand need to have a good level of English. It is recommended that students first improve their English and learn about New Zealand before attempting to study at a High School.

Programme Details

- Full-time study of 25 hours per week.
- Start any Monday of the school block.
- Course length 2 - 47 weeks (minimum of 12 weeks recommended).
- Regular progress reports prepared for parents and prospective High School.
- Course content includes NZ culture, specialised High School English, Research and report writing skills.

Students who enrol in our High School Preparation programme can enter one of the High Schools, provided they fulfil the school's entry requirements, then proceed to a University or Polytechnic. WIE provides a free service to help students enrol at High School after they finish the High School Preparation Programme.
